Homeowner's Insurance

Homeowner's insurance does not follow the one-fits-all approach as different home owners require different coverage and deductible options. Usually these policies are customized depending upon each individual's unique needs.

Dwelling

This type of coverage helps you pay the cost required to repair or rebuild the home, damaged due to fire, hailstorm or any other uncertain natural condition.

Personal Liability

When someone is injured on your property premises, this coverage pays for the legal expenses & medical bills.

Other Structures

The costs of repairing or rebuilding the structures that are not attached to the house are covered under this option.

Personal Property

This coverage covers damage to your personal belongings in case of theft, fire etc.
