

What To Do After A Total Loss Auto Accident

Claim process during total loss auto accident may require a whole lot of paperwork. So make sure that you present all the documents as and when required.

Make sure that you file the claim as quickly as possible, since sooner you file the claim, sooner will the insurance company start working on it.

Tow your damaged vehicle to the repair shop which is preferred/listed by your insurance company in order to speed up the claim process.

Do proper research and find out the current market value of your vehicle. This can be done by checking the vehicle listings for similar kind of vehicles.
