

RV Insurance Coverage Options

It is extremely important to purchase an insurance policy for your recreational vehicle not only to safeguard your personal assets but also to comply with laws of the state. Most common coverage options for RV insurance are:

01 Bodily Injury Liability Coverage

If you're held liable for any damage caused to another person, this coverage shall pay for their medical bills and other damages caused to their property.

02 Comprehensive & Collision Coverage

This coverage helps you pay for the damages arising to your vehicle due to an accident with another vehicle or from vandalism, theft, fire and other natural calamities.

03 Medical Payments (MedPay)

If your RV is involved in an accident, no matter who is at fault, this coverage pays for the medical bills and injuries you or any other passenger suffers from.

04 Replacement Cost Personal Effects

In case your recreational vehicle is stolen, this coverage option covers the costs of all the personal items that were there inside the vehicle.
