

Types Of Homeowners Insurance

Before making an informed decision, buyers should be aware of the different types of homeowners insurance available to them.

Dwelling Coverage

It provides financial protection for the structure of the home in case of any damage or destruction.

Personal Property Coverage

It protects possessions within the house such as furniture and appliances.

Personal Liability Coverage

This provides coverage when the owner is legally liable for injury to someone else in his premises.

Loss Of Use

It pays for the additional living expenses if the owner has to temporarily move out for repairs.

Medical Payments

This coverage pays for medical bills arising out of injury to somebody on the property.
