

Understanding The Essential Protection Provided By Homeowners Insurance In Killeen

Homeowners insurance offers financial protection against any loss due to covered events such as theft, disasters, etc.

Home Structure

Insurance pays for repairing or rebuilding the structure of home if damaged/ destroyed by covered events.

Personal Belongings

It covers any damage caused to personal belongings in the house including furniture and appliances.

Other Structures

Insurance provides financial protection for damage caused to structures attached to the house such as garage or shed.

Loss Of Use

It covers a percentage of living expenses or total living expenses for a specific period in cases where home owner has to move out of the home while it gets repaired in lieu of a covered damage.

Personal Liability

It covers the expenses incurred on legal lawsuits if the insured person is found to be guilty for any injury caused to a third person on the premises of his personal property.

Medical Payments

It covers the cost of medical bills (up to insurance limit) resulting from injury caused to someone on insured person's property.
