

Questions You Should Ask Yourself Before Buying Auto Insurance

A list of important questions that you should ask yourself before buying an auto insurance plan is:

#1

How Much Do I Drive?

Evaluate if you drive your vehicle occasionally or every day, for instance, to commute to work or drive the kids to school.

#2

What Type Of Car Do I Drive?

Before buying auto insurance, determine the type, engine power, and model name of your vehicle.

#3

Where Do I Live?

Your location will impact your insurance rate and it may be a factor in deciding the type of coverage you need.

#4

What Are The Legal Obligations?

Every state requires minimum liability coverage for your auto. Make sure your insurance plan complies with your state mandates.

#5

What Is My Risk Assessment?

The insurance provider will make use of data such as age, driving history, credit score, etc. to determine the overall risk imposed by you.
