

Homeowners Insurance Overview

Homeowners insurance provides financial protection against damage to a home and its contents, as well as liability for accidents that may occur on the property

Things To Know:

What does it protect?

Know the limits for coverage for structure, garages, and other built-in features.

Personal belongings – beyond the walls

Know about compensation for furniture, electronics, and personal items damaged or stolen inside or outside your home.

Liability protection – when accidents happen

Know about legal and medical coverage if someone is injured on your property.

Additional living expenses

Know limits for temporary living costs, like rent or hotel stays, if your home becomes uninhabitable due to a covered event.

Policy limits & deductibles

Know the maximum payout (limit) and amount you pay out-of-pocket before coverage starts (deductible).

Claim process – timely and transparent

Know what the process of seeking a claim is. Understand the documentation required and records to keep.

Clear coverage. Reliable protection

A trusted insurance partner helps you choose a policy that fits your needs-so your home stays protected at every step.
